Match Details
Competition: Super Rugby Pacific 2026, Round 13
Date & Time: Saturday, 9 May 2026, 7:35 PM (Canberra local time)
Venue: GIO Stadium, Canberra
Broadcast: Stan Sport (Australia)

Team Form
Western Force
Recent Results: Heavy Round 1 loss to Brumbies (24–56) showed defensive frailties.

Strengths: Possession-heavy style, strong set-piece execution.

Concerns: Struggles against top-tier opposition; missed tackles and lapses in defensive organization.

ACT Brumbies
Recent Results: Mixed form but remain a top-four contender.

Strengths: Experienced pack led by James Slipper and Rob Valetini; clinical finishing from Ryan Lonergan and Corey Toole.

Concerns: Occasional inconsistency away from home, but strong at GIO Stadium.

Key Matchups
Scrum battle: Tom Robertson (Force) vs James Slipper (Brumbies).

Back-row clash: Carlo Tizzano's breakdown work vs Rob Valetini's ball-carrying power.

Playmaking duel: Ben Donaldson (Force) vs Declan Meredith (Brumbies).

Stakes
Brumbies: A win keeps them firmly in the playoff race and strengthens their home fortress reputation.

Force: Victory would be a statement upset, proving they can challenge top-four sides and reignite their season momentum.

Narrative
This fixture is a classic David vs Goliath clash: the Brumbies, perennial contenders, against a Force side desperate to prove they belong in the upper tier. Expect the Brumbies to lean on their structured attack and set-piece dominance, while the Force will need creativity and resilience to break through.
